COLUMBIA, S.C. – The SCDC Inspector General released the arrest warrants today for six inmates in separate cases from August 2026:

- Kyshon Jenkins, 34: Two counts of second-degree assault and battery. The charges involve assaulting and biting two officers at McCormick CI on March 16.
- Raheem N. Thomas, 31: Second-degree assault and battery. The charge involves assaulting a fellow inmate at Tyger River CI on April 13.
- Tyshawn Davon Green, 25: Two counts of third-degree assault and battery. The charges involve two staff members at McCormick CI on April 27.
- Chantiny M. Jeffcoat, 37: Threatening the life of a public official. The charge involves threats made to a staff member at Leath CI on June 11.
- Jordan Leon Taylor, 26: Throwing bodily fluids on an officer. The charge involves an incident at Tyger River CI on April 13.
- Jamie Herring, 49: Possession of THC with intent to distribute. The charge involves drugs at Kershaw CI on Nov. 1, 2023.

When a currently incarcerated person is charged with a crime, the inmate still must be served with a warrant and be afforded a bond hearing. For scheduling purposes, this happens at SCDC once a month. These are cases that came up for bond hearings in August 2026. These are criminal charges in circuit court. They are different from disciplinary charges inmates might receive while incarcerated.

The S.C. Department of Corrections reminds members of the public that after an arrest, the burden of proof is on the state to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt within a court of law.

Copies of the arrest warrants are attached.
