

CORRECTIONAL OFFICERS' 30TH ANNUAL APPRECIATION LUNCHEON

The South Carolina Correctional Association (SCCA) celebrated the Correctional Officers' 30th Annual Appreciation Luncheon at SCDC's training academy on Tuesday, May 17, 2016. SCDC's Division of Training and Staff Development was proud to host the event recognizing our own dedicated officers as well as officers from the South Carolina Department of Juvenile Justice, South Carolina Highway patrol, South Carolina Department of Probation, Pardon and Parole, Richland County, Alston Wilkes, and the Naval Consolidated Brig in Charleston.

"The South Carolina Correctional Association, the state chapter of the American Correctional Association, feels privileged to honor the men and women of adult corrections facilities, Probation, Pardon and Parole Agents and statewide law enforcement at our luncheon. These men and women truly give of themselves to make a better and safer South Carolina, added SCCA President, John Barkley.

Congratulations and remarks were given by SCDC Director Bryan P. Stirling, SCCA President and SCDC PREA Coordinator, John Barkley, and SCCA Lee CI Chapter president and AW at Lee CI, Willie Davis, and Nena Staley, Manning CI Warden and SCCA President Elect.

Congratulations to the South Carolina Correctional Officer of the Year, Michelle Oakman-Tucker from Trenton Correctional Institution and many more officers and staff honored on Tuesday.

State of South Carolina Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, correctional officers demonstrate their unwavering commitment to ensuring our public safety through their supervision of incarcerated offenders and by effectively providing custody and care of sentenced adults and adjudicated juveniles; and

WHEREAS, correctional officers are essential to the success of our judicial process and to the health, safety, and general welfare of law abiding South Carolinians; and

WHEREAS, the work of correctional officers includes daily exposure to a hostile environment with some of the most dangerous individuals in our society; and

WHEREAS, correctional officers throughout the Palmetto State dutifully perform their work with courage, pride, and true professionalism, upholding the highest standards of servant leadership.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 1 - 7, 2016, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the many contributions made by correctional officers to the safety, security, and peace of mind of our residents and to honor those officers who have been injured or sacrificed their lives in the line of duty.

NIKKI R. HALEY
GOVERNOR
STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
