COLUMBIA, S.C. – Two people have been arrested and charged with working together to bring contraband into Lee Correctional Institution, and charges are pending against a third man.

The arrests were made after a month-long investigation by the Sumter County Sheriff's Department and the S.C. Department of Corrections Police Services uncovered an operation involving a Wedgefield woman, a maintenance worker at Lee CI and an inmate at Lee.

Michael Lynn Mattox, 55, of Ridgeway, is charged with providing contraband to an inmate and two counts of criminal conspiracy. Mattox, a maintenance worker at Lee CI, was fired after his arrest.

Jessica Nichole Colclough Frasier, 31, of Wedgefield, is charged with two counts of possession of marijuana with intent to distribute, two counts of criminal conspiracy, and providing contraband to an inmate.

Charges will be forthcoming against the inmate.

The charges against Frasier involve packages of marijuana, cell phones, tobacco, rolling papers, phone chargers and lighters found in her car during a traffic stop and later in her home Dec. 16. Deputies estimate the contraband is valued at $350,000. During the investigation, other charges were filed against Frasier and Mattox, charging them with bringing contraband to an inmate at the prison five times between Nov. 1-Dec. 16.

The S.C. Department of Corrections reminds members of the public that after an arrest, the burden of proof is on the state to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt within a court of law.

Copies of the arrest warrants are attached.
